

Varsity Plays Well Against Coyotes

By Judy Rogers

The Golden Plains boys basketball team continues to show improvements as the season progresses. They showed their abilities against Weskan on December 20 as they hustled and worked together as a team.

The Bulldogs started strong and held a 7-6 lead at the end of the first quarter. Weskan pulled ahead at the beginning of the second but baskets by Tristan Schwarz and Shane Ryburn narrowed the spread to one and a steal and layup by Grant Spresser put the Bulldogs back in the lead. The Coyotes added a couple of shots to hold an 18-15 lead at the half.

The Coyotes pulled ahead in the third quarter. Shots from Kade Wessel, Spresser, and Ryburn held that lead to 7 at the end of the third. The Bulldogs were determined to finish strong but the Coyotes pushed through for 16 points in the fourth to the Bulldog's 8 for the 45-30 win.

Shane Ryburn put in 9 points for the Bulldogs along with Grant Spresser-8, Kade Wessel-6, Tristan Schwarz-5, and Koi Wessel-2. The Bulldogs will continue their season in St. Francis on January 3.
