

Lady Bulldogs Down the Cougars

By Judy Rogers

The Golden Plains Lady Bulldogs brought down the Lady Cougars with a 62-41 win on a Saturday game February 8. “We started out very strong,” said Kami Miller. “We crashed the boards hard and pushed the ball.” Their aggressive play helped the girls grabbed on to a 16-5 lead in first and accelerated their lead with another 18 in the second.

With a 34-13 lead at the half, the Lady Bulldogs relaxed in the second half and allowed the Lady Cougars to outscore them 18-12 in the third. The girls regrouped going into the fourth and once again held on for the 62-41 win.

Hailee Spresser led with 17 points along with Kynndra Rush-12, Rachael Ritter-8, Maddy Walz-8, MiKayla Lobato-5, Kami Miller-4, and Morgan Ritter-1. The Lady Bulldogs outrebounded the Lady Cougars 51-21 and totaled 13 assists with Jordan Christensen leading the team in both areas of play.
