

JV Boys Allow Ringneck Win

By Judy Rogers

The Ringnecks from Hill City came to Rexford on February 11 and took home a JV win over the Golden Plains boys basketball team. The JV boys were overpowered by the speed and skill of the Ringnecks, falling behind 4-17 in the first of three quarters played. Although the Bulldog squad worked hard and never gave up, the Ringnecks continued to push throughout the game and won 51-16 over the Bulldogs.

“We kept our cool throughout the game and never quit,” said Jesus Aragon. “Although we tried our hardest,” added Dawson Spresser, “We do need to go into games with a better outlook than we did tonight.” The JV will play at home again next Tuesday when they host the Triplains/Brewster Titans on January 18.
