

JV Girls Face First Loss

By Judy Rogers

The Golden Plains Lady Bulldogs JV team faced their first loss on the basketball floor as they fell to the Lady Thunderhawks in their last home game February 21. The Lady Thunderhawks claimed an early lead in this three quarter game pulling ahead 11-4.

The Lady Bulldogs came back in the second to score 11 in the second quarter to bring the spread to 15-19. In the third and final 8 minutes of play, both teams stayed competitive with the Lady 'Hawks outscoring the Bulldogs 7-6 for the five point win 26-21.

“The Lady Thunderhawks were very aggressive,” said Maddy Walz, sophomore. “That really took a toll on how we played.” “We figured we would have to face a loss this season,” added Gabrielle Schiltz, freshman. “I am proud of how hard all the girls have worked all year to have the success we have had.”

Scoring for the Lady Bulldogs were Gabrielle Schiltz-9, Ana Bermudez-4, Maddy Walz-4, Morgan Ritter-2, and Kynndra Rush-2. The JV girls are now 9-1 on the season. They will have one final game this Friday at Cheylin.
