

Bulldogs Face Off Against State Ranked Wildcats

By Judy Rogers

The Golden Plains Bulldogs played the Wallace County Wildcats in a district game on October 18. The Wildcats are currently ranked third in the state on the preppowerindex.com. The Wildcats played a tough game showing fans on both sides of the field why they have this ranking.

The Bulldogs knew this would be a challenging game from start to finish, but played for pride in their team and played the best game they could. “We ran into a buzzsaw in Wallace County,” said Coach Travis Smith. Despite their efforts, the Wildcats rolled past them for a 61-0 win by the half moving them up to a #2 state rank on maxpreps.com.

The visiting Bulldogs only managed 91 rushing yards and 31 tackles with senior Shane Ryburn and junior Benny Martinez leading with 11 and 10 respectively. The Bulldogs will return home this week for another district game against the Wheatland/Grinnell Thunderhawks. “As a team we have to move forward and prepare for this week,” added Smith. “We have a great oppoprtnunity to get a win this week and need to turn our focus to that.” The Bulldogs will kick off against the ‘Hawks on Friday at 7:00 pm in Rexford.
