

Bulldogs Win Third Straight

By Judy Rogers

Golden Plains' boys won their third straight basketball game with a 54-50 win over the Northern Valley Huskies in Almena on January 22. This win moves the Bulldogs to a 6-5 record for the season.

The boys played a competitive game as both teams put in 12 points in the first. The Huskies pulled ahead at the half 27-24. The 'Dogs worked hard in the third, but were still trailing by 1 at the end of the quarter.

The fourth quarter kept the stands on their feet in excitement as the teams battled to the very end. The Bulldogs added another 19, holding the Huskies to 14 as they pulled ahead for the win.

"We have been playing well as a team as of late," said Koi Wessel. "We still need to work hard in order to reach our goals."

Kade Wessel pulled off 22 points in the game. Koi Wessel added 12 along with 11 from AJ Camacho, 4 from Cole Ziegelmeier, 3 from Brett Gerbitz, and 2 from Dawson Spresser.

The Bulldogs return home to host the Quinter Bulldogs on January 26. They will not have a game on Friday as they prepare for the League Tournament next week in Grainfield and Colby.
