

Bulldogs Fall to Titans By Judy Rogers

The Golden Plains Bulldog basketball team fell 36-59 to the Triplains/Brewster Titans on January 8 in Winona.

The Titans jumped on the 'Dogs early in the first quarter pulling ahead to a 14-4 lead. The Bulldogs answered in the second with 13 points, but the Titans added 16 to maintain a healthy 30-17 lead at the half.

The third quarter included another 13-16 score as the Titans extended their lead. The fourth quarter continued to be all Titans as they added another 13 allowing the 'Dogs to put in six for the 36-59 final score.

"We got off to a bad start," said Junior Jesus Aragon, "but we fought our way back to within five a couple of times." Kade Wessel and Koi Wessel each scored 13 points against the Titans. AJ Camacho added 5, Brett Gerbitz-3, and Aragon-2.

The Bulldogs traveled to St. Francis on Saturday for the second game of the week.
