

Brown Qualifies for State at Colby League Meet
By Maggi Nieman

On March 8th Nick Brown qualified for state in both of his events at the GWAC League Tournament in Colby. Golden Plains is not in this league, but they went to make the meet a state qualifying competition.

Nick qualified for state in Humorous Solo and Informative. It was his first time competing with his Humorous Solo. He got 2nd in both of the pieces. "I'm excited to go to State Forensics in April," said Nick Brown. "I am happy to get this experience."

In the other events, the team presented 2 Humorous Solos, 2 Informatives, 1 Prose, 3 Orations, and 1 Poetry. Kade Wessel placed 4th in Humorous Solo and 3rd in Oration, Koi Wessel placed 5th in Prose and 5th in Oration, Angel Sanchez placed 4th in Oration.

The next meet is April 6th when they will be competing in the WKLL League Tournament at Northern Valley in Almena starting at 10:00 a.m.
