

Scholar's Bowl Competes Twice in One Week

By Haley Miller

The Golden Plains High School scholar's bowl teams competed twice in a week as they traveled Cheylin on November 16 and played in Goodland on November 19.

The team started off at Cheylin with a loss against Rawlins County, but then pulled out with two wins over St. Francis and Heartland in pool play. They then moved on to the championships to play Logan, Rawlins County, and Cheylin. Unfortunately, GP did not win any rounds and did not place.

The team then went to Goodland on November 19th. This week's Varsity team consisted of Clayton Bange, Angel Sanchez, Haley Miller, and Jennifer Esparza. Golden Plains won their first contest, advancing to play Quinter. Unfortunately the 'Dogs couldn't come out with a win over Quinter. But the team pulled out another win over St. Francis and a loss against Goodland. "I felt like the questions were more on a junior varsity level rather than a varsity one," said sophomore Jennifer Esparza. "They were pretty easy questions." The team travels to compete at Sharon Springs on November 23rd
