

Scholar Bowl Team Opens Season in Atwood

By Beth Luna

The High School Scholar's bowl team faced in their first meets of this season at Atwood on October 20. Competing in the Varsity were Angel Sanchez, Devin Carter, Clayton Bange, and Nick Brown. They won three and lost four with wins over Wallace County Norton, and Cheylin. Losses went to Rawlins County, Quinter, St. Francis, and Goodland with the Quinter and Goodland meets within just one or two questions. "We need to trust each other more," said Devin Carter. "It was frustrating because there were a lot of big schools," added Angel Sanchez. "It was a pretty competitive meet, but we were the only school to beat Norton." Norton won the meet.

Competing on the JV team were Amanda Cheney, Haley Miller, Charlotte McCurdy, and Jennifer Esparza. They also won three over Cheylin, Oberlin, and Colby and lost four to Goodland, Quinter, Norton, and Rawlins County. "We need to communicate among the team and buzz in better," said Charlotte McCurdy.

The Bulldogs next competition will be in Rexford on November 2.
