

Lady Bulldogs Play Hard

By Amanda Cheney

The Golden Plains Lady Bulldogs traveled to Almena to play the Victoria Knights and the Northern Valley Huskies on September 15. The girls went 1-1 on the day defeating the Knights and losing to the Huskies.

Golden Plains played the Lady Knights first. The 'Dogs beat Victoria 25-18 in the first set. In the second and final set, the Knights tried to hold on, but the Lady Bulldogs prevailed in a 25-21 victory. "We started out nervous because of the new competition, we were quick on our feet, which was good," said junior Gabrielle Schiltz.

Up next was Golden Plains versus Northern Valley. Both teams had beaten Victoria earlier in the afternoon. The Lady Huskies had very powerful hits and the Lady Bulldogs lost 15-25. The second set was closer, but again Northern Valley overpowered GP 19-25. "I think we shouldn't worry about who is on the other side of the net, because we definitely got nervous." added Schiltz, "Overall, I think we had a good night."
