

A-Team Girls Win First Home Game
By Maggi Nieman

The Golden Plains A-team girls continued their winning streak to advance to a 3-0 record with a 31-18 win over the Logan Trojans for their first home game on November 19.

In the first quarter, the Bulldogs started off strong, putting up a score of 6-3. They continued their momentum and scored four more points in the second quarter. The Bulldogs' strong defense held the Lady Trojans to only 5 points in the first half as they led 10-5.

In the second half, GP was unstoppable scoring 10 points in the third and 11 points in the fourth with lots of hustle up and down the floor. The score ended up being 31-18 with a Bulldog win. "Our pressure on defense was an asset to our win, tonight," said Kassie Miller.

Points came from a number of girls including Ashley Stoll-8, Mabel Lugo-6, Kassie Miller-5, Brooke Stoll-4, Taryn Fleckenstein-4, and Rileigh Korte-4. Assisting in the game were Sable Finlay, Jaiden Koerperich, Candace Taylor, and Malilah Green. The Lady Bulldogs try to keep their winning streak alive on Tuesday, November 24, 2015 against Triplains/Brewster at Winona.
