

Lady Bulldogs Win Two More
By Maggi Nieman

The Lady Bulldogs of GPMS gained two more wins over the Northern Valley Huskies on Thursday, December 17.

The B-Team girls had a half of a game. In the first quarter the Bulldogs put up the first two points of the game. The Huskies answered, but another basket from Carli Nieman gave the Bulldogs a 4-2 lead. Northern Valley struck back in the second quarter, tying the game up. In the last minute, Carli Nieman got four free throw attempts, and made two of the four shots, making the final score 6-4. All six points came from Nieman to give the girls a 4-2 record heading into the Christmas break.

The A-Team girls started their game strong, putting up 15 points for a lead of 15-6 at the end of the first. In the second quarter, they added 7 more points, heading into half with a score of 22-10. They came back with 10 more points in the third, only allowing 2 from the Huskies making the score 32-12. The Huskies fought back in the fourth with 9 while the Bulldogs added 6 more for the 38-21 win. Points came from Mabel Lugo and Karri Schaben with 9 points each, Brooke Stoll with 8 points, Ashley Stoll with 6 points, Kassie Miller with 4 points, and Sable Finlay with 2 points.

“It was a pretty rough game,” stated seventh grader Ashley Stoll. “It was very physical on the inside.” The Bulldogs remain undefeated at 6-0. They will be back on their home court again on Thursday, January 7, 2016, against the Cheylin Cougars.
