

'Dogs Fall Short at Palco
By KayCee Miller

The Golden Plains Bulldogs traveled to Palco on February 17th where they fell to the Roosters with a final score of 13-36.

The boys started off slow by not hitting a basket in the first quarter while Palco put in 7 points. "No one could make anything," said Jacob Ritter. Devin Carter hit the first basket and then Nolan Ritter followed with a three in the second. The Roosters added another 9 points making the halftime score 5-16.

Coming out of halftime Jacob Ritter swished a three while the Roosters added another 9 points. The third quarter score was 8-25. The fourth quarter started with a three from Brett Gerbitz and then Devin Carter added another block shot. Palco added 11 more points in the fourth making the final score 13-36. This loss gives the bulldogs a 4-17 record. Scoring came from Jacob Ritter 3, Devin Carter 4, Brett Gerbitz 3, and Nolan Ritter 3.

"Our season hasn't gone as well as we hoped," continued Jacob Ritter. "Hopefully we can get another win the first round of sub-state." The Bulldogs hosted the final game of regular season against the Northern Valley Huskies on February 21 in Rexford and will play Tribune at Sub-State on February 28.
