

Forensics Compete at NWKL Meet

By Beth Luna

The Golden Plains Forensics Team went to Sharon Springs March 30 to compete at the Northwest Kansas League meet. They did exceptionally well at this meet with once event winning a spot at State Champs and several others placing in their events. "I think we did really well," said Nicolai Schuellner, "I am really proud of our team."

Schullner competed in Oration and placed 1st, which earned him to spot at the state meet in early May. Nick Brown competed well making finals in both Humorous Solo in which he got 4th place, and in Extemp where he placed third.

Amanda Cheney competed in Poetry, placing 5th place for a spot at State Festival. "It was great to qualify for state festival since it was only my second meet I have been to," commented Amanda. "Overall, I think that It was a great meet." Noel Ritter competed in Duet with Amanda Cheney for their first time performance and Carmen Sepulveda competed in Prose.

The next Forensics meet will be in Ransom on April 5 at the Western Kansas Liberty League.
