

Blizzard Does Not Deter Bulldogs for Setting Records By Judy Rogers

The blizzard that swept through the area and shut down power lines in Selden, Rexford, and the surrounding area did not deter the Golden Plains Bulldogs from delivering outstanding performances as they traveled to the Logan Invitational Track Meet on May 2.

“The High School Track teams had a great day today,” said Coach Travis Smith. “The boys scored a season high in points.” They earned 42 points while setting multiple personal records even though they were missing a few team members. “We talked about having PR's and SR's this week,” continued Smith, “and I will guess that 90 % of our athletes did that today! Go Dogs!”

Nolan Ritter set a PR in shot put of 38' 3" for fifth place. Austin Rivera threw the shot 35' 2.5". Rivera just missed placing in discus in 7th place with a PR of 97' 11". Ritter threw the discus 92' 2". In javelin, Dawson Spresser threw a PR of 120' 10" for sixth place. Rivera threw the javelin 100' 1".

Over in the pits, Dawson Spresser set another PR in triple jump of 37' 10.25" for first place. Dylan Spresser placed fourth at 37' 1.5". Dylan set a PR of 17' 7.25" in long jump for fifth place while Dawson jumped 17' 1".

Running the 200m dash was Austin Patmon with a PR of 25.9 for fifth place and Nicolai Schuellner at 29.6. Patmon also set a PR in the 400m dash with a third place finish of 57.93. Schuellner placed fifth with a PR of 1:01.04.

Joseph Yanez-Perez had some good runs as he placed sixth in the 800m at 2:39.07, set a PR of 5:39.45 for fifth place in the 1600m run, and placed fourth in the 3200m run with a time of 13:08.87.

The 4 x 100m relay ran the best 4 x 100 of the season of 50.26 run by Austin Patmon, Dylan Spresser, Austin Rivera, and Dawson Spresser. The boys also had a season best 4 x 400m relay of the year of 4:07.37 for fifth place with Dylan Spresser, Dawson Spresser, Nolan Ritter, and Austin Patmon running.

The boys were scheduled to compete in Colby on May 5, but with the meet cancelled because of the storm, they will compete in Dighton facing some new teams they have yet to see this season.
