

Ritter Selected Student of the Month
By Judy Rogers

Morgan Ritter has been selected as the Golden Plains High School Student of the Month for March. Ritter, a senior at GPHS, has been a four-year member of the Honor Roll. She is a member of the National Honor Society, is on the yearbook staff, and serves as class president for the second year.

Ritter is also involved in athletics including four years on the volleyball team and four years on the basketball team—including three trips to state. She competed in track for three years and served as a cheerleader for two years.

In addition to her school activities, Morgan is active in her church having participated in CYO throughout high school and lectors at mass. She also works part-time and plans to attend Fort Hays State University in the fall to major in accounting.

“It is an honor to be recognized throughout the school for all of the work I have done and for being so involved at GPHS,” said Ritter. She is the daughter of Robert and Laura Ritter of Selden.
