

Lady Bulldogs Win on Senior Night By Amanda Cheney

The Golden Plains Lady Bulldogs added another win to their record after hosting the Lady Roosters on February 16 in their last home game of the season.

The Bulldogs started the game strong and kept the Roosters from scoring double digits in the first quarter, ending it with a score of 15-4. The Lady 'Dogs continued to compete with the girls from Palco, holding them to a single point in the second quarter. The Lady Bulldogs themselves would score 18 and head into the locker room with a lead of 33-5.

GP continued to work in the third quarter, adding 11 points to the Lady Roosters' 2 go into the fourth quarter 44-7. The Bulldogs continued to play well and distributed the ball throughout the team members, ending the game with a 48-14 win over the Lady Roosters.

Mabel Lugo and Ashley Stoll led the Lady Bulldogs in scoring with 10 points each, followed by KayCee Miller-7, Kaylie Schaben-4, Noel Ritter-4, Taryn Fleckenstein-4, Tylor Todd-3, Maggi Nieman-2, Jennifer Esparza-2, and Brooke Stoll-2.

"This was a good win," said sophomore Mabel Lugo. "We worked really well together, and I was proud of people coming off the bench and playing hard. It was also good to get a win for the seniors, since this was their last home game." The girls will travel to Almena to play the Northern Valley Huskies on Tuesday, February 20, in their last regular season game before substate.
