

Forensics Team Qualifies for Finals at Trego”

By Mack Keller

Seven students from Golden Plains High School attended the Trego Forensics meet on Saturday, February 9, where most placed in finals. Malilah Green placed 4th in the Prose category. Amanda Cheney placed 4th in Poetry. Flint Hodge placed 5th in Extemp, and Chucky Hernandez placed 6th in Impromptu.

Alisha Brantley was very close to making the finals of Poetry as well. She was in a three-way tie at the end of three rounds, just missing finals. Danica Ritter and Joseph Yanez-Perez also participated.

“I was very proud of my younger competitors for doing well in tough events,” said Coach Robynn Wessel. “I also am very proud of my senior competitors. They stepped up and helped out when it was needed.” Their next meet is next Saturday, February February 16 at Wheatland.
