On the Tuesday of November 27th, the Golden Plains High School team took 4th place at the Greeley County Scholar's Bowl competition. There were a total of 16 teams competing in the event in 9 separate rounds. "It was fun to go against other teams," stated Flint Hodge.

The competition started off with the GP team facing off against the Syracuse team. After winning the first round they moved on win over Heartland Christian, Dighton, Greeley County, Cheylin and Quinter. They lost the final round of pool play to Wheatland/Grinnell but were still able to advance to the finals.

After a defeat in both rounds of finals, the GP team, consisting of Taryn Fleckenstein, Haley Miller, Joseph Yanez-Perez, Flint Hodge, Wyatt McDonald, and Lauren Patmon, finished in fourth place. "At least we had fun," added Flint Hodge. "Next time we'll do better."

The Bulldogs will take a break until after the first of the year when they travel to the Brewster Invitational on January 14.
