

Scholars Bowl Takes Second at Wallace County

By Jayda Schwarz

The Golden Plains Bulldogs Scholar Bowl team placed second at Wallace County on November 19. Competing for the Bulldogs were Taryn Fleckenstein, Haley Miller, Joseph Yanez, Flint Hodge, Karrington Schaben, and Wyatt McDonald.

There were a total of 11 teams that competed in this meet. The teams were split into two pools. The Bulldogs went 4-1 in pool play winning against Wallace Co., Triplains, Rawlins Co., and Colby. They lost to Oakley but still qualified for finals. The 'Dogs went 1-1 in finals with a win over Weskan, but lost to Wheatland-Grinnell for 2nd place.

“ I think we competed really well,” said senior Haley Miller, “but we will always have room for improvement. I’m excited to see how the rest our season goes,” The Bulldogs will compete next at Greeley County on November 27.
