By Judy Rogers

The Lady Bulldogs from Golden Plains started their 2019 basketball season with a 47-25 win over Logan on January 4.

The Logan girls opened the game with a 3 and held on to the lead throughout the first despite a last second buzzer shot from Ashley Stoll to make the score 8-10. "It took us a while to get going after the break," said Ashley Stoll. "Our shots just wouldn't fall," added Brooke Stoll. KayCee Miller hit the first shot of the second quarter to tie the game up at 10. The Bulldogs took over to lead 20-11 by the half.

The Trojans rallied a bit in the third quarter to add 5 points but the Bulldogs extended their lead to 30-16. Both teams worked hard to finish the game as the Trojans added another 9 but the 'Dogs, helped by a couple of threes from Brooke Stoll, pushed forward for 17 more to finish with the 47-25 win to remain undefeated on the season.

Ashley Stoll had 9 points along with 8 each from KayCee Miller, Kassie Miller, Brooke Stoll, and Zoey Hillis. An additional 2 each were scored by Amanda Cheney, Carli Nieman, and Mabel Lugo. The girls continued their season on Saturday with a home game against St. Francis.
