

MS Fight Against Northern Valley.
By Colby Lathrop

The Golden Plains Middle School boys hosted the Northern Valley Huskies on Thursday December 13 for their last games before the Christmas break.

The B team started the night off scoring 8 points but allowing the Huskies 15 points for the first quarter lead. The Bulldogs couldn't get the ball to fall in the second quarter while the Huskies added 19 to their 34-8 half time lead.

The 'Dogs out hustled the Huskies in the third quarter scoring 7 points holding the Huskies to 4. To Bulldogs added another 7 in the fourth while the Huskies scored 8 ending the night with 22-46 Bulldog loss. Games points were score Owen Patmon 14, Josh Rath 6, and Abe Taylor 2.

The A team boys also lost to the Huskies. They struggled to score in the first quarter with a free throw coming from Will Bruggeman while allowing the Huskies 20. The 'Dogs added four in the second, but the Huskies scored 24 ending the half 5-44.

The Bulldogs were unable to score again in the third as the Huskies added 25. The Bulldogs held on for six points in the fourth as they held the Huskies to two as the Huskies claimed the win 71-11. Josh Rath ended the game with 3 points along with 2 each from Owen Patmon, Mason Green, Tayten Barnett, and a free throw each from Jerrit Koerperich and Will Bruggeman.

“It was a very interesting game,” said Tayten Barnett, 7th grade. “We hustled but still have a lot of work to do on shooting, defense, and rebounding.” The Bulldogs will continue their season starting the 2019 year off hosting Cheylin January 3.