

MS Girls go 1-1 at Home

By Brooke Stoll

The Golden Plains Bulldogs hosted the Northern Valley Huskies on December 13. The GPMS Girls won the A-team game but got defeated in the B-team game.

The B-team girls started the night off. They were unable to find the bucket in the first quarter while the Huskies scored 6, making the score 0-6 after the first quarter of play. The Bulldogs put in 2 in the second quarter to trail 2-10 at halftime. The Lady Dogs continued to fight but couldn't stop the huskies and lost 6-24. Scoring for the Bulldogs were Anette Hernandez with 2, Mia Rogers 2, and Jamie Graves 2. "It was a really tough game and they were very aggressive," said Jorja Juenemann 7th grade. "It has been a good season so far and we have always tried our hardest!"

The A-team girls took the court ready to play and played tough defense on the Huskies, leading with a score of 4-2 at the end of the first quarter. They found the basket in the second quarter and put up 9 points, while holding the Huskies to 2 to make the score going into halftime was 13-4.

Coming out of halftime both teams put in four more points extending the score to 17-8 at the end of the third. The GPMS Lady Bulldogs continued to fight and won the game 25-14. The girls extended their record for the season to 4-0 to extend their winning streak of 45-0 in the past four seasons. Sidney Taylor and Breanna Rath led the game each with 7, followed by McHaley Carter with 5, Jordyn Fleckenstein with 4, and Jazline Manriquez with 2.

"It was a lot of fun to play in this game and I think we played hard!" Jordyn Fleckenstein said, "We did good on our free throws and it was the best game we have played yet this season! My goal after winter break is to come back strong and play hard." The GPMS will practice hard over winter break to get ready to host the Cheylin Cougars on January 3.
