

Bulldogs Take Second at Cheylin

By Ethan Weiner

On November 11 the Golden Plains High School scholars bowl team traveled to Cheylin to take on seven teams. The Bulldogs took 2nd place with a 5-1 record. "We got off to a rough start at the home meet," said Joseph Yanez-Perez. "It helped us learn each other's strengths so we could work together at Cheylin."

They started off with a strong with a 40-10 victory against Cheylin in the first round. The second round was a ghost round. In the third round Golden Plains took the win over Triplains 40-10. The fourth round was a close round for Golden Plains. They fell short to Wheatland losing 40-50. Golden Plains came into the fifth round ready to compete. They did just that defeating Weskan 40-30. The sixth round Golden Plains defeated Rawlins County 60-10. The seventh and final round was a tough one for Golden Plains. They squeaked by Logan with a 20-10 win.

Team members participating included Karrington Schaben, Taryn Fleckenstein, Alisha Brantley, Flint Hodge, Joseph Yanez-Perez, and Ethan Weiner. The next Scholars Bowl meet is on November 21st in Goodland.
