

Bulldogs Host the Buffaloes

By Judy Rogers

The Golden Plains High School boys basketball team hosted the Rawlins County Buffaloes in Rexford on February 13. The boys fought hard against the Buffaloes but were trampled 79-40.

The Buffaloes opened with a 22-9 lead over the Bulldogs in the first quarter. The dogs added 8 in the second while the Buffs put in another 20 giving them a 42-17 lead at the half. The Dogs played their best quarter in the third for 14 points, but the Buffaloes held strong for an additional 21. The Dogs were able to add another 9 to finish the game as the Buffs added 16 for the 79-40 win over the Bulldogs.

Dylan Wark scored 23 points for Golden Plains. Owen Patmon added 6, and Josh Rath, Zeke Weiner, Miguel Garcia, Abe Taylor, and Will Bruggeman each added 2 with Jose Rios scoring the final point.

Garcia led the Dogs on the floor with 6 rebounds, 1 assist, 2 steals and 1 block. Patmon had 3 rebounds and 2 assists, while Perez had 3 rebounds and 1 steal. Taylor had 2 rebounds, 3 assists, and 2 blocks. Rath had 2 rebounds and 2 steals while Wark had 1 rebound and 2 assists. Weiner had 1 rebound and 1 assist, Rios had 2 rebounds, and Dominic Stout and Conner Kier each had a rebound.

The Dogs played twice more during the week as they traveled to Oakley on February 15 and Almena to play Northern Valley on February 16.
