

JV Boys Drop One to Hill City

By Judy Rogers

The Golden Plains JV Boys basketball team lost a game to the Hill City Ringnecks in Hill City 25-64 on February 6. The Ringnecks posted up 25 points in the first quarter holding the Bulldogs to 6. The Dogs added 9 in the second quarter while the Ringnecks extended their lead to 39-15 at the half.

The Ringnecks continued to control the game in the second half as they added 15 in the third and 10 in the fourth. The Dogs only added another 10 in the second half as the Ringnecks claimed the win 64-25.

Freshman Conner Kier scored 11 points for the Bulldogs. Tanner Black added 4, Zeke Weiner 3, Jose Rios 3, Will Bruggeman 2, and Abe Taylor 2. The JV boys will play on their home court on February 9 when they host Wheatland/Grinnell.