

One More Qualifies for State
By McKinzie Horobik

The Golden Plains Forensics Team traveled to Oberlin on April 2 to compete in the Oberlin Invitational. Addy Wessel placed second to qualify for state champs in poetry with the poem "Explaining My Depression to My Mother.". The team placed third overall.

There were 11 event entries. Dylan Wark presented his prose "Goin' Fishin'." Janessa Leija presented her Prose piece "The Plane Truth." Jorja Juenemann presented her prose "Answering 911: Life in the Hot Seat" and poetry "Stages of Grief." Dominic Stout presented his prose, "My Brother's Keeper." Tanner Black presented his poetry piece "Here Bullet."

McKinzie Horobik presented her poetry "I Don't Want to be Crazy," placing fifth. "Wyatt Amlong placed first in Extemp, Wessel and Leija partnered up for IDA to place fifth, and Wark and Black also performed in IDA placed fourth.

"All the students did well," said Coach Robynn Wessel. Overall they all worked hard to bring home a 3rd place finish for GP!" The team then traveled to Ransom the following day to participate in the WKLL League meet.
