

Forensics Team Competes at Norton Winter Jam By Ava Brantley

The Golden Plains Forensics team competed at the Winter Jam meet in Norton on February 11 for their second meet of the season. Several team members made it to the finals and the team finished in fifth place.

Dominic Stout made the finals in Prose and finished in 6th place. Hayden Wark also made finals in Prose and placed 3rd, barely missing out on State Champs qualifications. He also competed in Impromptu. She also made it to finals in Poetry and finished with another 3rd place. “Next time I know Hayden will get qualified,” said Coach Robynn Wessel.

Wyatt Amlong competed in finals in Impromptu and finished 6th as well as qualifying for State Champs by placing 2nd in Extemp. Maddix Green and Tanner Black gained experience in IDA, but did not break finals at this meet. “Keep up the good work team,” added Wessel. “I am proud of you.” The team's next meet will be Ellis Invitational on March 4.
