

Golden Plains Overtaken by Hill City

By Landon Meier

The Golden Plains Bulldogs competed against Hill City in a game hosted in Rexford on February 7. Dylan Wark scored the first three points in the game, and Josh Rath scored two. Owen Patmon scored the only Bulldog basket in the second quarter. The Dogs went into halftime with 7 points and Hill City with 62.

Both Zeke Weiner and Wark scored two points apiece in the third quarter and Wark made two baskets at the free-throw line. Dominic Stout made a free throw and Rath had three points in the fourth quarter. The final score was a 17-93 loss for the Bulldogs.

Dylan Wark finished the game with 7 points along with 5 from Josh Rath. Ezekiel Weiner and Owen Patmon each had 2 and Dominic Stout 1.

“I know we are not as experienced as the other team,” said freshman Zeke Weiner. “We can’t let this game stop our optimism for the next game, so we need to see this as a learning experience.” The Bulldogs next game will be against Wheatland in Grainfield on February 10.
