

JV Boys Defeat the Huskies

By Sidney Taylor

The Golden Plains JV boys played a close game against Northern Valley on February 17 at Rexford. The Bulldog took their second win in a row 29-27 over the Huskies.

The Bulldogs came out strong and took an early lead. They put 12 on the board in the first quarter, with 6 coming from freshman Diego Perez. The Dogs held the Huskies to only 5. In the second quarter, the Huskies were able to outscore the Bulldogs, but they kept the lead going into half 16-14.

The Bulldogs added 5 more to start the second half, while the Huskies kept it close, adding 4. With the score now 21-18, the Bulldogs were ready for the final quarter. Although the Huskies added 9 and the Bulldogs only 8, The Dogs still came out with the 29-27 win.

“We all played a good game,” said Perez, “I’m glad we have one more game to finish out the JV season.” “It was a fun game,” added Abraao Carnei. “It was good to get a win.”

Diego Perez led the team with 12, followed by Dominic Stout 5, Abe Taylor 4, Zeke Weiner, Abraao Alencar, and Will Bruggeman each added 2, along with 1 each from Dylan Wark and Miguel Garcia. The JV will play their last game of the season on February 21 against Wallace County at Rexford.
