By Sidney Taylor

The Golden Plains JV boys took a 15-54 loss against the Hill City Ringnecks on January 7, in Rexford.

The Dogs struggled getting their shots to fall and only put up 3 in the first quarter and allowed the Ringnecks 19. With a rough second quarter, the Dogs went into the half 4-40. Coming out of the half, the Dogs still struggled to add 5 to the board, with a third quarter score 9-51. In the fourth, the Bulldogs held the Ringnecks to their lowest quarter, holding them to 3 while finishing with 10 of their own. The game ended in a Bulldog loss 15-54.

Diego Perez led the Bulldogs with 5 points, Owen Patmon and Miguel Garcia each had 3, Abraao Alencar 2, and Dominic Stout 2.

“We could focus on better ball handling and just working better as a team,” said sophomore Dominic Stout. “We are happy we get to play these JV games.” The Dogs continue their season with half a JV game on January 10 against the Wheatland/Grinnell Thunderhawks.
