

Scholars Bowl Team Competes in Tribune by Lesly Rios

The Golden Plains High School Scholar Bowl team competed at the Greeley County Invitational in Tribune on November 28. The team included Emma Weiner, Dylan Wark, Jordyn Fleckenstein, Zeke Weiner, and Wyatt Amlong. The team ended their rounds with 4 wins and 4 losses.

Their first round was against Quinter. They did well beat Quinter 60-40. The Bulldogs stayed put in the next round and beat Oakley 50-40. In the third round they fell short behind and lost to Cheylin 20-70. The Bulldogs struggled to stay ahead and lost to Dighton in the fourth round 15-75 and to Leoti in the fifth round 30-50.

The Dogs came back in the sixth round winning against Stanton County 50-10. The final rounds were against Heartland Christian and Weskan where they lost 25-40 to Heartland and finished their last round with a win against Weskan 30-0. With a 4-4 record, the Dogs did not make it out of pool play.

“We’re a pretty solid team!” said Junior Wyatt Amlong. “ There were a lot of very large teams but we competed well in our pool.” Their season will continue December 4 in Colby.
