

Scholar Bowl Team Competes in Goodland

By Lesly Rios

The Golden Plains High School Scholar Bowl team competed at the Goodland High School Invitational on November 15. The team members included Emma Weiner, Jordyn Fleckenstein, Tanner Black, Wyatt Amlong, Dominic Stout, and Diego Perez. The team ended their rounds with 2 wins and 4 losses.

Their first round was against Colby where the Bulldogs lost 20-80. The Bulldogs were close in the next round, but still lost against Wallace County 40-50. The third round was against Rawlins County where the Dogs did well and won 30-20 and they stayed put and won against Goodland 30-20. The final round against Quinter the round was tougher the Bulldogs lost 10-50. The Dogs ended their round losing against Norton 20-80. With a 2-4 record, they did not advance out of pool play.

“We had a good time!” said Junior Dominic Stout. “Even though we lost a few rounds we still enjoyed it.” Their season will continue November 20 in Wallace County.