

Lady Bulldogs Split Games at Winona By Lesly Rios

The Golden Plains High School volleyball team traveled to Winona to play against Northern Valley and Triplains/Brewster on October 3. The Lady Bulldogs played two close matches going three sets each with the Dogs defeating Triplains/Brewster and losing to Northern Valley.

The Bulldogs started the night facing off against the Northern Valley Lady Huskies. The Dogs had lost to the Huskies in two sets earlier this season. The girls started off strong with a first set win 25-22 over the Huskies. Northern Valley came back in the second to claim the win 22-25. Going into the third set, the Dogs worked hard but fell to the Huskies 19-25. "We came together and played very well," said Hayden Wark, junior. "It was overall a good game."

The second game of the night for the Lady Bulldogs was against Triplains/Brewster. The Dogs started the first set with determination and won the set 30-28. The second set began and the Titans did not give up easily, winning the set 25-21. The Bulldogs came back in the third set winning 25-17. They will continue their season at the Ringneck Classic on October 7.
